The United States of America, by and through the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina, after consultation with the defendants as indicated below, provides to the Court a proposed agenda for the status conference currently scheduled for August 17, 2010, before Magistrate Judge Gates.

The Government, after consultation with the defendants proposes that such agenda include the following:

1. Defendants progress with transcript review and editing;
2. Proposal for handling of Sensitive But Unclassified (SBU) material in jail context;
3. Designation and related discovery relative to expert testimony; and,
4. Overseas depositions.

The Government has contacted all defense counsel relative to this notice. Ms. Debra Graves, Ms. Rosemary Godwin, Mr. Daniel Boyce, Mr. Myron Hill, Mr. John Keating Wiles, Mr. Joseph E. Zeszotarski, and Mr. Robert McAfee have all indicated their satisfaction with the proposed agenda. However, due to technical difficulties, Mr. John D. McCullough was not able to view the proposed agenda, and at this writing had not yet offered his position in the matter.

As a consequence to the above the Government proposes that the suggested agenda items included herein be covered in the status conference.

Respectfully submitted, this 12th day of August, 2010.
